Staffing News

We are delighted to welcome Paula Gill back to work this week, following her ankle injury earlier in the year.

This week, members of our leadership team will be attending the Re-imagining Childhood – A Collaboration of Local and International Perspectives on Early Childhood conference at the Adelaide Convention Centre. ELC teachers Kirsty and Abby attended site visits yesterday as part of the conference and today will be hearing from a number of speakers including Professor Martin Westwell whose most recent work has focused on the development of children's executive functions (or stop-and-think skills) to help empower them as effective learners. On Wednesday, Lana and Jackie will attend the conference and hear from speakers including Carla Rinaldi, a world leader in education for children in the early years and President of The Foundation Reggio Children Centre Loris Malaguzzi, in Reggio Emilia, Italy.
